

To all our clients, family and friends,

This past weekend we received news from all different sources that have changed our lives. Businesses implementing work from home, schools closing for an unforeseeable time, gyms, libraries, places of worship, all closed to help prevent the spread of this infectious virus. We've all witnessed with our own eyes as we went to our local grocery store to pick up staples for our family. It has impacted all of us in our careers, our home life, our finances and our daily routines. No one knows how long the global disruption from Covid-19 will last. Every one of us is already making adaptations which affect our personal economic activity.

The cumulative effect of all these small decisions is a hit on the US and global GDP.

The world as we know now, won't be quite the same for a while.
But it will be back...

David and I want to reinforce our commitment to working for you, whether it's from our Corporate Woods office or our home office. We are staying connected to all analysts and economists to keep us informed on the latest information that is affecting our industry. It is our intention to keep all lines of communication open with you whether that is through phone or email. We also have the technology to conduct meetings remotely as we are trying to limit the number of individuals coming into the office to keep everyone safe and healthy.

Overall, we are confident that our clients have their accounts diversified appropriately based on their own short and long term goals. We encourage you to call if you have anything you want to talk about or have questions.

We are all in this together, going through these changes for the first time. No one has the answers, however take the precautions necessary to stay healthy. Please don't lose your compassion and neighborly ways for each other, take this time to help one another out.

We are here for you and we encourage you to call with any changes, questions or concerns, as we will do the same with all of you.

Stay healthy and safe.

Shana and David
